Commonwealth Credit Union Named Best Place to Work in Kentucky for Seventh Consecutive Year

Frankfort, KY (May 29, 2025) — Commonwealth Credit Union (CCU) has once again been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Kentucky by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, marking its seventh consecutive year receiving this prestigious honor. The award was presented during a celebration dinner held earlier this month in Lexington.

This continued recognition highlights CCU's unwavering commitment to cultivating an award-winning workplace culture, prioritizing employee growth, and offering benefits that go beyond expectations.

"To be recognized for the seventh year in a row is a testament to the incredible people who make up our CCU team," said Karen Harbin, President/CEO of Commonwealth Credit Union. "We don't take this award lightly. It reminds us that a strong culture—one that values communication, collaboration, and care—makes all the difference, not just for our team, but for the members we serve."

The Best Places to Work program honors organizations that go above and beyond to foster excellence in the workplace. At CCU, that commitment is deeply rooted in leadership and reinforced throughout the organization. Since launching a transformative culture initiative in 2014, CCU has focused on empowering team members and supporting their well-being—an approach that continues to drive its success.

"Our team is our greatest asset," said Randy Fawns, Chair of CCU's Board of Directors. "This award isn't just about recognition, it's about responsibility. We will continue to invest in our people and their development to ensure CCU remains a place where careers thrive and individuals feel truly valued."

As CCU celebrates this milestone, it remains dedicated to building a workplace where purpose, passion, and people come together to make a lasting impact.
